Ferd Schupp is one of McGraw's promising young twirlers who hopes to have the Polo grounds for his address this summer. He pitched 51 games for Decatur in the Three-I eague last season and hung up the strike-out record for the minor leagues with the total of 265.

Just now he is a spindle shanked youngster, but he is still growing and filling out and will be a big fellow in a year or two. Wilbert Robinson, the coach, is very strong for him and predicts a brilliant future for this

SKYSCRAPERS ONCE MORE DEFEATED

Hester's Electrics again defeated the Skyscrapers on Lucas field yes-terday afternoon, but the game was no such performance as that of the previous day McCloskey's men failed to find Duffy, the recrut, whose work on the mound won him a reputation that bids fair to grow. The recruit struck out twelve men and kept nine hits well scattered. He also tapped the ball for one of the two double-base hits credited to Great Falls. Morgan pitched for Salt Lake, allowing eight taps, but these were made at opportune times. He was replaced by Hummel in the ninth, and McCloskey also sent in pinch hitters without avail Salt Lake lost two good opportunities to win out by failure to connect with the pellet. The final score was 5 to 3. GREAT FALLS.

THIRTEENTH

Butte won a 13-inning game from Ogden yesterday afternoon by the score of 9 to 6, although Ogden secured the same number of hits and made one less error. The winning runs were batted in by Butte after two men had been put out.

The score was six to six and had remained that for four innings in the thirteenth, Turgeon flied to Murray and Levy flied to Moorehead. Whaling stepped to the bat and, after striking at two, hit a hot one to Foster. Believing that he had not time to spare, Foster fielded too rapidly and threw the ball high over Van's head at first. Kafora, the next man up scored Whaling and was in turn scored by a two bagger by Marshall hit for three and scored Duddy before the side was retired.

replaced by Applegate, who pitched the remainder of the game. Thirteen hits were made on each pitcher. For seven innings both team played league ball, fielding rapidly and without errors. Some of the features of the game were the fielding of Wessler, Marshall's hitting and base running, a sensational catch by Whaling in the ninth, and a one hand catch by Kafora in the tenth inning. Both teams played decidedly interesting ball and there were few of the fans who left the grounds be-fore the game was over, although the breeze that blew carried memories of winter.

Butte scored its first run in the inning. Butte made two more in the third without a hit. Levy was walked by Green, who hit Whaling, the next man up. Kafora was out, Jones to Van, but Levy and Whaling advanced one station each. Levy scored on a passed ball by Moore and Duddy sacrificed Whaling over the plate by long fly to Wessler. The fifth tally was made in the fifth which featured some good base run-ning by Marshall. Green walked Whaling, who advanced after Kafora was put out and scored later on a sacrifice by Duddy Marshal stole second and third, but his steals did no good, as Shannon was an easy out, Green
